General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR)

Under the GDP Regulations the club needs to obtain your consent to use the personal data that you have provided on this form. The data will be kept secure and not be shared with third parties, other than required for bowling related purposes.

Specifically your consent is required to allow the following uses of your data: -

- To display your telephone number(s) on the list of members in the clubhouse. This to be used solely for contacting you on club matters.
- For contacting you by email or letter on club related matters.
- Providing your name, and possibly telephone number, for registration purposes to bowling leagues and competitions that you have chosen to participate in.
- In the case of officers of the club, it may be required to share your name, telephone number and email with Bowls Devon for inclusion in the Bowls Devon diary and website. Officers' details may also be included on the KBC website.
- There may be other one- off requirements for members' names or contact details to be included in, for example, advertising material, for which consent would be obtained at the time.
